On Saturday, March 13th Coastal E-WASTE, the CDI Parents Association and State Farm Agent Gwyn Petrick in Woodland Hills are sponsoring an electronic waste collection event to raise proceeds for the Child Development Institute located in Woodland Hills. It will be held behind the Old Canoga Park Library from 9:00am to 3:00pm. For more information on E-Waste please contact us at 866-410-9600, and ask for the recycling department. For drop-off information or if you need a large pick up call 818-534-2316. Drop-off is on Saturday, March 13, 2009 from 9am to 3pm— in the parking lot behind 7260 Owensmouth Ave. in Canoga Park, CA.

*Current research shows that quality early intervention services and support boosts a child's chance of success in school and beyond.

CDI in Woodland Hills serves as a vital resource for children and families, focusing on the development of the whole child – but they need your help. Your donations will help CDI extend their reach to more children and families in the community and provide them with the programs and services they need.
